MARY HELEN BURCH

Dedication

In grateful appreciation the Class of 1947 dedicates its edition of the Kaleidoscope to our friend and sponsor

MARY HELEN BURCH

Tolerant, ever considerate of others—there is a simplicity, an integrity about everything she does which has a brilliance all its own, the gleam of which will serve as an inspiring beacon to us. The pure gold of a fine character shines through her every act, and lends a rare dignity to her achievements. Remembering the high ideals for which she stands will ever remind us of our responsibility to be, like her, shining lights in a needy world.

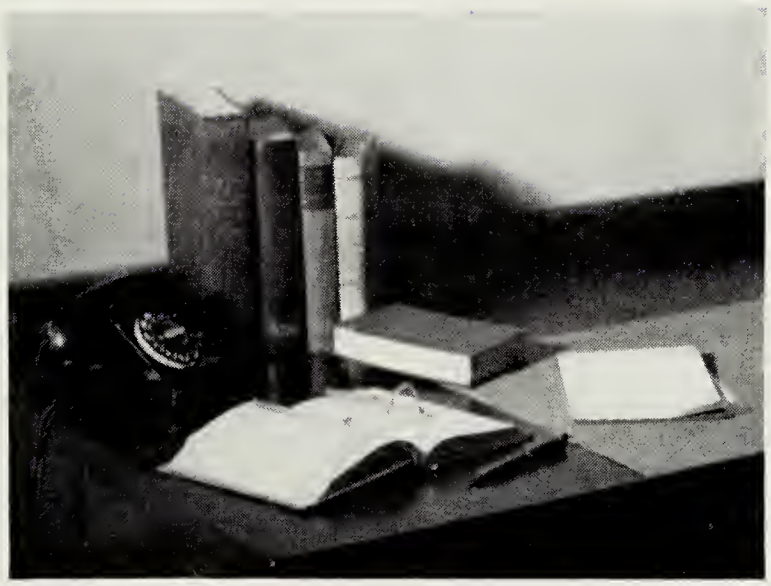

Foreword

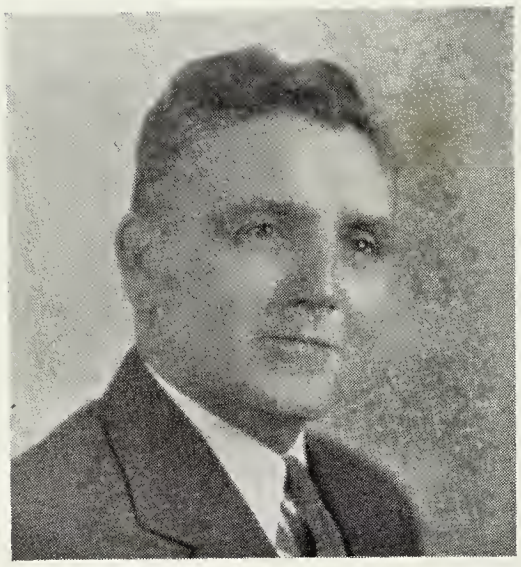

To you, the students of Hopewell High School, we, the graduating senior class of 1947, offer this edition of the Kaleidoscope, as a pleasant record of the happy days we have spent here and as a significant reminder in years to come.

Class Prophecy

Yes, it was nice gazing into the flickering fire. There I sat in my living room in the year 1967 thinking back over my school days. I wondered what has happened to my classmates. What had the future held for them? Ah, if I only knew. But wait..what was that sound?? A rushing wind? No, it was a little elf, who stood before me. "So," he said, in a tiny voice, "you wish to see your old classmates?" "Yes," said I, thoroughly astonished. "Well, come with me," and with a snap of his fingers, we both vanished into the flames. I found myself in a large city standing in front of a smart Lingerie Shop run by, as I could see by the neon sign, Madame Maric. Imagine my surprise, when upon entering, I was greeted by Mary Uhrich and her assistants, Marian Smith, Doris Pelter, and Jeannine Carder. Mary said that she had been married to Willie Shaw for several years and that he had a job as a bank accountant, Smithey England, Louis Fuzy, and Jimmy Moore worked with him as teller, assistant teller, and guard.

The little elf tugged at my sleeve and told me that we must hurry as I had only a few hours to spend in reviewing the lives of my friends. Off we went to view a dancing school where I saw Slim Sordelett and Myrtle Davis dancing a specialty dance. They taught dancing and also worked in the nite club, the "Bottled Fly," run by Oscar Minchew and Herbert Rowland. Music there was furnished by Woody Woodpecker and his four pecks, who are Jean Hazelgrove, Joyce Burijon, Walter Wells, and vocalist, Paul LaForce who also sang the theme song for station ICU on "Life is Awful" sponsored by the makers of Toil and Trouble Bubble Gum with those three delicious flavors, garlic, onion, and gardenia. The sponsors were Plato Eliades, Grayson Edwards, Lester Harrison, and Shakey Jacobs, who also made automobile tire patches as a sideline. ICU was run by the four "C's" Corporation, Julian Cadger, Harold Carelock, Charles Caison, and last but not least, Glenn Cassell. Their announcers were Stanford England, Jerry Voda, and Fred Boocks.

There was a sister station to ICU in Hopewell, operated by Lawrence Allen who was former mayor of Hopewell but had been succeeded by Durwood Barco. James Bishop was city treasurer and Betty Jane Justice had the coveted job as secretary to the mayor.

Leaving our high-falooting friends, I went into a radio store to buy a portable in order to hear the big football game I had read so much about on the billboards. Who should wait on me but Bernard Goldman! I tuned in just in time to hear "'And there goes Bruce Price, of the Philadelphia Eagles with a touchdown and the whistle blows for the end of the game. This is Jack Parrish signing off for "Slice 'em Blades" made and used by only Alfred Sacra and Carl Pederson."

My little elf friend informed me that we must hurry so I had to dash..right into Beverley Wills who was selling those little men who walk. I caught his words, "Yeah, friends, amazing—only the third part of a dollar!!!"

He was standing in front of a beauty salon owned by Ellen Morris who, I was told, had invented a magic formula for, yes, for removing the face!! It was selling like hot cakes and it was all her assistants could do to keep the crowd back. Among the aids I saw Cleo Sapon, Virginia Kemper, and Iva Greene.

Whoosh? huph. The elf didn't even tell me to hurry; he just swooshed me over to a session of Congress. Allen Garrett was speaker of the House and Preston Savage was staging a filibuster. At the moment he was reading from "Jokes and Yokes for Funny Folks" written by the celebrated authoress, Alice Lee Hall. There were few members, but among them I saw Miss Burch's contribution to the government—Jean Maddux, Louise Gilbert, and Rudy Futch, who as usual, looked bored.

As I turned to leave, I saw a picture on the wall. No, no, it couldn't be, not that, not President Mac McRae!!!! Well, evidently the senior class of '47 hadn't gone far wrong or maybe he just liked being president.

"Come," said Elfie, (I had gotten on familiar terms with him by now) "and I will show you Hollywood." I saw the scrumptious setting of "The Wreck on the Highway" starring Pete Weston and Betsy Wilson. They were still up to old tricks. Other parts in the movie were being played by Billy Renn, Shirley Manverse, Margaret Davis and Ray Hardy. Director and Producer were respectively Paul Nichols and Howard Wilkerson. They had just finished a new pictue, "The Bandit" starring Dorothy Olsen and Melvin Atkins.

Whoops, look at the time! In three shakes of a lamb's tail, I was soaring over the city of Petersburg where Joan Meadors now resided. She was teaching at Petersburg High School and had married a former Petersburg alumnus. As we whizzed over the city, I noticed a fashion show going on. Barbara Sims was modeling an evening dress designed by Wanda Norwood, the famous world-known designer. Models employed by her were Elizabeth Weaver, Pat Moore, Goldie Cox, Carolyn Akers, Connie Ginger, and Jane Collins.

In a very comfortable home I noticed my old friend Billie ("Baby") Aderholt and her husband seated before a fire.

An alumni football game was going on down below and whom should I see, but Ellsworth Bryant, Henry Jandl, Stanley Ackerman, and Sidney Carter. Glenn Bannerman was on the sidelines cheering as usual. It was a game between Hopewell University and Petersburg University. Hopewell was leading 100 to 0. At Hopewell University, Mary Daniel was Dean of Women and Leon Boulavsky, Dean of Men. Mary Ellen Harlow was now directing the band. Elaine Garfinkle, Virginia Martin, and Maxine Saunders were teachers there. Calvin Hendrix was Boys' Physical Education director. H. U. was noted for its women's basketball team coached by Anne Finley and Evelyn Carelock.

Leaving the crowd, I was attracted to a group of people whose eyes seemed fixed on something. Um—I must satisfy my curosity—so I hurried over and lo and behold whom should I see but Mildred Wheeler and Stuart Silverman, doing an acrobatic act—of all things. They were from the famous "Flea Circus," Ibitem and Uscratchum, owned by Bunny Freeman and Michell Lockey. Among those watching were Edward Daniel and Harold Barnett. Of course, his girl was there. Charles Hussy and Rosa Lee Elmore were there, too. Across the street was a college snack bar called the "Little P.X." operated by Rudolph Jones. Managers were Etta Cox and Hannah Abrams.

"Hey!—Hey!"—shouted the little elf, "Do you want to see an auto race?" Natch, could I miss one? I partially glimpsed roaring down the track small cars that seemed to be going faster than anything I had ever seen before. The announcer was calling the numbers. Number Nine—"Driven by the Speed Demon of the World—Ferocious, Theodosious, Cannonball Magnusdal." Number Ten—by the woman speed Queen-Freda "The Skeeter, "Hnarakis." How things have changed!

Peggy Connelly and her spouse, Bill Long, owned this track.

"Elfie Pie," (I was definitely fond of him now) pushed my arm—"'Look over there," he said, "there are some more of your classmates." And so there were. Jimmy Mason and Sam Richardson, accompanied by those lovely lovies, Jean Morris and Frances Evans. They had just clambered into their new automobile—one that goes forward and backwards. As they took off, the bumper did too. New automobiles—humph.

I saw "Scruggs" drug store owned by Lovelene Scruggs who had also invented a super dooper ice cream soda made of "Duz" the soap that does everything. Eleanor Davis and Maxine Jones were druggists. Just entering the store I noticed Jackie Eavey, Loretta Rader, Lance McQuage and Robert Kanak, evidently having lunch.

Next to the drug store was a jewelry shop called "Temples." Evidently that was Irene and she specialized in diamond rings. Tom Mason came in and bought ten rings. Golly—he must run an escort bureau by himself!

Arinton Croom ran a bakery called "Croom's Crumbs."

I noticed a billboard that advertised Cake Makeup guaranteed to flatten the features and made of pure mud. Jewel Mae Harrison, Hazel Dabney and Phyllis Webb distributed this remarkable product. Arthur Bright was advertising manager; his slogan was, "Be right with Bright."

Well, my time was up and the little elf whizzed me back to my comfortable fire where I awoke from this amazing dream....or was it a dream?

—Betsy Wilson

Creators, Not Imitators

'Most lost beneath wars' strident din,
Obscure but eager entered in
Our class in 'forty-three, and then
Took up our place as low freshmen.

No matter that the world at war
Was getting closer to our door,
Along with service, tears, and strife,
Our job was to prepare for life.

Lessons, sports, compulsory gym,
We took them all with strength and vim,
To help pass through life's higher grade
With a countenance unafraid.

As sophomores we were joining clubs,
Entering games as "subs" or "scrubs,"
Taking our place in social news,
Forming our groups and airing views.

As juniors we could point with pride
To exploits noted far and wide,
Our dances, plays, our banquet, too,
Were something different, something new

As seniors in these post-war days,
We've changed our stride in many ways;
Our veterans came back one by one
Raised our morale, increased our fun.

Seniors, let never our class
Lose creative efforts as we pass;
Into the richer world we'll go,
It needs us creators, you know.

—Arinton Croom

Hopewell 25—Victoria 0

The Blue Devils opened their 1946 football season with a convincing victory over Victoria High. The Victoria lads fought hard and gave the Blue Devils a good scrap, but the lack of reserves hampered them tremendously. The Blue Devil forewall was outstanding as the records show. Two touchdowns were set up with punts blocked by them. Pete Altman, Bruce Price, and Stanley Dereski scored the touchdowns for Hopewell and Francis Powell converted the only extra point.

Hopewell 38—Randolph Macon "B" 0

The Blue Devils outplayed the Yellow Jackets, swamping them with a 38 to 0 score. Bruce Price led the Blue Devil scorers with four touchdowns to his credit. Walter Nelms and Dick Brockwell each scored a touchdown with Neil Atwater and Rudy Futch being credited for the two Blue Devil conversions. The Hopewell "scatbacks" ran wild all day making quite a few long runs behind great downfield blocking furnished by the line. The great defensive play of the Wonder City line was also a main factor in this one-sided scoring game.

Hopewell 25—Lane 0

The Blue Devils captured their first Group I victory at the expense of the hard fighting, ever stubborn Lane High eleven of Charlottesville. Again the Blue Devil forewall forced its opponent to go to the air as it charged hard and stopped any ground-gaining attempts. The Uram men completely outplayed the Charlottesville boys from the first blow of the whistle to the last.

Hopewell 6—Petersburg 0

The Blue Devils upset their favored arch rival on Cameron Field with a score of 6-0. In the early minutes of the second quarter, Center, Allen Garrett, broke through the Crimson forewall to block the kick which set up Hopewell's lone tally. Three plays later, Fullback, Stanley Dereski, went over on a line buck. The whole Blue Devil team played a great game with special honors going to Mike Mardigian, Alvin O'Berry, Neil Atwater, Bruce Price, Allen Garrett, Stanley Dereski

Hopewell 0—Granby 19

The first defeat of the season was handed to the Blue Devils by Granby High of Norfolk. Being credited with giving Granby the toughest battle in three seasons of football shows that the Wonder City lads played good ball regardless of the score. The Comets pushed across two first period tallies before the Blue Devils could find their ground and then pushed across another in the last quarter to mar the Blue Devil record of no losses. The second half saw the Blue Devils penetrate deep in Granby's territory but each time the drives were staved off by the Comets.

Hopewell 6—Benedictine 0

The Blue Devils went back into the winning column by defeating the Cadets of Benedictine 6-0. After playing the first quarter and most of the second quarter on even terms, the passing attack of the Wonder City lads clicked for two long passes which carried the ball down to the one yard line. "Stonewall" Dereski went over on the next play. The forewall of the Devils was great on defense and on offense with all playing a fine ball game. The backfield also played equally well on both defense and offense.

Hopewell 32—John Marshall 0

The high riding Blue Devils scored their third Group 1 victory of the season by defeating John Marshall 32-0. Bruce Price scored three times behind well co-ordinated blocking of his teammates. Hopewell's passing arm, Rudy Futch, connected with Neil Atwater and Stanley Dereski for the other touchdowns, with Atwater and Price each being credited for a conversion.

Hopewell 6—Maury 12

The Blue Devils were handed their second deefat at the hands of Maury High. Gus Polizos and Bill Rainer accounted for the Commodores' tallies. Stanley Dereski accounted for the Blue Devil's only tally. The Blue Devils outplayed the Commodores in the first half but Maury cashed in on the breaks in the second half to win the ball game.

Hopewell 20—Newport News 6

The Blue Devils proved to be too rough and too strong for the Typhoon boys as they defeated the Tidewater boys 20-6. Great line play was displayed by the Blue Devil forewall and the backfield men took advantage of their good blocking. Scoring for Hopewell were Bruce Price, Stanley Dereski and Walter Nelms. Dereski was credited with the two extra points that were scored.

Hopewell 6—Thomas Jefferson 0

The Blue Devils closed their 1946 football season with a smashing 6-0 victory over Thomas Jefferson of Richmond. Stanley Dereski scored Hopewell's lone tally in the early minutes of the game when he fought his way over from the three yard line. Hopewell threatened in the latter part of the game, but could not make their efforts materialize into touchdowns.
